Judge Collen Kollar-Kotelly:

From my understanding, the Tunney Act requires full disclosure of all government contacts. Most of the attention has been that Microsoft has been not disclosed all of the lobbying that they have done. But does the Tunney Act also require full disclosure by the supporters of this suit against Microsoft. I am referring to Apple, Sun Microsystems, and Oracle Corp. I believe that these companies must also disclose all contacts they have had regarding Microsoft. I know that several times, President Clinton stayed at Steve Jobs home while visiting the Bay Area. I'm sure Microsoft came came up as a topic at supper time. Please look into this.

Thank you,
